

STEM Conference

May 20, 2015 • Tangeman University Center • University of Cincinnati

*Expanding STEM Resources:
Connecting Classroom to Community and Career*

When and Where?

- Wednesday, May 20, 2015, from 7:45 am – 3:30 pm, at Tangeman University Center, on the campus of the University of Cincinnati

Who Should Attend?

- K-12 STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) teachers and administrators from public and private schools who:
 - wish to network with educational organizations that support STEM education
 - are seeking innovative instructional strategies in STEM disciplines
 - plan to network with other STEM teachers
 - are creating professional support systems for STEM educators
 - are interested in existing models for STEM education
- Leaders in higher education, business and industry that support STEM education and STEM-related career opportunities who:
 - are seeking avenues to bridge students into STEM careers
 - are interested models for STEM education

Conference Features:

- The conference opens in the Great Hall at TUC, beginning with the STEM Showcase, from 7:45 – 9:30 am featuring representatives from over 35 different informal educational organizations and higher education institutions that represent a variety of STEM topics and careers. Each informal organization offers educational outreach to teachers. The higher education representatives will share STEM career opportunities with teachers for the purpose of making their students aware of the various STEM career possibilities available to them.
- From 7:45-9:30 am, there will also be a Poster Session display in the front lobby of units on Challenge Based Learning and Engineering Design Process presented by CEEMS and RET Teachers.
- Beginning at 8:30 am, the conference also features four concurrent break-out sessions including Interactive Workshops, led by teachers, administrators and business and industry leaders.
- Up to 7 professional contact hours offered.
- A Tweet Challenge – an opportunity for attendees to win educational prizes.

Registration Information:

- The Registration site opens on January 26th, 2015. Fee of $25.00 includes: continental breakfast, lunch, on-campus garage parking voucher.

SAVE the DATE SAVE the DATE SAVE the DATE